

2020 AUSTRIA SUMMER SEMINAR

Hosted by the Austin Institute

COUNSELING THE WHOLE PERSON: REUNIFYING PSYCHOLOGY, PHILOSOPHY, AND THEOLOGY

An Interdisciplinary Summer Program

June 9-20, 2020

Franciscan University Campus in Gaming, Austria

Who: Students enrolled in graduate-level counseling or psychology programs as well as practicing clinicians.

What: Education and formation in Catholic philosophical anthropology, habit formation and change, and their application to contemporary issues in psychology and therapy, e.g. gender dysphoria, self-efficacy, “willpower,” positive psychology, human flourishing, marriage, and family life.

How: Competitive application process. Admission is selective.

Cost: Those selected to participate receive fellowships covering all expenses associated with the program except travel to and from Gaming, Austria. A limited number of partial travel stipends are available to students. Please inquire.

EXTENDED APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 15, 2020

For more information and to apply, visit: austin-institute.org/austria-2020

Please direct any questions to:
Dr. Kevin E. Stuart at
kes@austin-institute.org

